

LOMA LINDA UNIVERSITY PATHWAY PROGRAMS

Open House

Annual event to connect with academic advisors, meet students, and attend program sessions

Discovery Program

Two-week program for underrepresented minority high school students in the Inland Empire

Careers in Public Health

Interactive one-day event discovering the various careers in public health

Introduction to Behavioral Health

Short-term course for high school graduates or equivalent to explore behavioral health careers

Careers in Dental Hygiene

Workshop for high school graduates, college students, and people looking for a career change

Careers in Dentistry

Multi-day workshop for high school graduates interested in dental and dental hygiene careers

Minorities in Dentistry

One-day workshop designed for underrepresented groups available for high school graduates

Minority Introduction to the Health Sciences

Three-week program to introduce Black high school students to careers in health sciences

Apprenticeship Bridge to College

Eight-week summer internship program in health disparities research for high school students

My Campus

Quarterly opportunity to learn about healthcare careers for middle and high school minority students

Center for Health Disparities and Molecular Medicine

Research projects and training programs for high school students, undergraduates, first year minority medical students and graduate students

Pathways to PharmD

School of Pharmacy collaborates with academic institutions to offer pathway programs for a seamless transition into the PharmD program

Summer Undergraduate Research Fellowship

For undergraduate students who are interested in a biomedical research career

Undergraduate Training Program

Summer program offering practical lab research experience alongside distinguished faculty and mentorship

SCAN TO LEARN MORE.
go.llu.edu/pathwayprograms

LLUHMKT#11036-UNIV-24/0524/1000

LOMA LINDA UNIVERSITY

ANSWER
YOUR CALLING